Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Hinkley brought an unusually high level of skill, maturity and dedication to all the various activities in which she participated, such as in church, community and the YMCA; and,

WHEREAS, Elizabeth introduced the YMCA's new guppy aquatic program to the youngsters in the Pierre/Ft. Pierre area; and has substantially increased participation in all Gebe YMCA aquatic programs; and,

WHEREAS, Elizabeth developed the aqua jog program, with a test group of five, that has grown to over 100 participants and has been shared nationally; and,

WHEREAS, Elizabeth serves as a CER trainer for the Pierre/Ft. Pierre area, and has successfully completed certification as an emergency medical technician; and,

WHEREAS, Elizabeth served as choir director at the Church of Latter Day Saints; and,

WHEREAS, Liz Hinkley, after raising a family, has decided to attend SDSU to obtain her nursing degree, and should be commended for this decision:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 6, 1987, as

ELIZABETH HINKLEY DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE A. ZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
